Leave Your Camera at Home.

Hundreds of magical moments happen during a family vacation or special milestone event that can never be replicated. Instead of spending all your time trying to capture those moments, let an artistic photojournalist take the pictures for you—and get back to living in the moment.

“When I take a picture, I want to see the life and joy that exudes out of every smile, every hug, every kiss, every burst of laughter because to me, that is where true memories live.” — YVES

capturing the adventure

Yves Vacation Stories<sup>SM</sup> can travel with you anywhere, for any occasion and artistically help you preserve your memories. Just imagine how freeing it would be to just enjoy your family vacation and not have to tote the camera around. You'll come home from your adventure rested and relaxed—knowing that every joyous and tender moment was candidly captured for a lifetime of memories.

You've done it for every other major event in your lifetime — weddings, graduations, milestone birthdays and anniversaries. So why not hire a photographer to capture your family vacation or other extraordinary adventure?

From the lens of my camera to the legacy of your family

My goal is to create photographs that are more beautiful than you ever dreamed. Photos are a window into your life, your family's life and into your relationships with friends. They truly become priceless, saying what words really cannot say.
